

WMC Potential Music Camp List

This list is a reference for those students/families who are interested in attending a camp or have won a camp scholarship through the club. It does not reflect any endorsements of any camps listed by the club and is meant as a helpful place to start in your potential camp research. This is not meant as a limitation to potential camps you may attend. It is a reference of information on known camps including those that scholarship recipients have attended in the past. Also, if you find a camp not on this list that you would like to attend in order to use your scholarship, please contact the WMC Camp Scholarship Coordinator with your camp selection.

While the vast majority of camps will be held in person for 2025, it is anticipated that a number of programs will continue to offer virtual options. Please check out the individual camp websites for more detailed up-to-date information.

Chamber Music Academy	Charlottesville, VA	<1 week	$	Contact: M. Alan Pearce malanpearce@gmail.com http://www.malanpearce.com/	The Chamber Music Academy will focus the development of students' abilities in the nuances of nonverbal communication through body language, musical tone, and breath in the chamber music setting, with particular emphasis on musicality and rhythmic cueing skills. Such issues as choreography, counting, plus knowing where the music builds or gets softer, and how this relates to breathing and cues, will be explored in depth to help develop the student's mastery of non-verbal musical communication. Appropriate exercises will be implemented such as: practicing eye contact at musical entrances, choreographing bodily cues (in tandem with rhythmic breathing) for better ensemble connectivity, as well as learning the micro/macro approach to the musical work as a whole: in other words, how everyone's role individually contributes to the big picture of the harmonized ensemble.
